

"Circulation Books Open to All."

SYMPHONY TAKES FOUR-

Marks Day.

Fine Racing Weather Brings Out Big Crowd to the Crescent

THE WINNERS.

First Race-Mynheer (13 to 1)

M s. Frank Foster (15 to 1) 2, De

SECOND RACE-Symphony (3 to

1) 1, Trossachs (15 to 1) 2, Lally

THIRD RACE-Bud Embry (8 to 1) 1, Bard of Avon (4 to 5) 2, Mac

FOURTH RACE-Big Ben (6 to 5)

RACE TRACK, NEW ORLEANS, LA.

SECOND RACE.

THIRD RACE.

FOURTH RACE.

Seven furlongs, purse $500, a free handican

TOM RUSH ELECTED.

Recount Gives Him a Majority

A recount of votes in some of the sembly District, made to-day by order of Justice Leventritt, shows that Thomas E. Rush was elected Tammany leader and member of the Executive Committee of Tammany Hall at the Committee of Tammany Hall at the Septeber priaries. Jacob Marks has fought Rush's battle from the close of the polls. When the returns showed 1,020 votes for Joseph F. Mulqueen, John F. Carroll's heir, and 1,005 for Rush, who was Leader Charles F. Murphy's favorite. The recout shows Rush's official vote to be 1.013 to 1,008 for his opponent.

MRS. PLANT WILL NOT SIGN

Settlement of $17,000,000 Estate 1

Still in Abeyance.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Dec. 10.-Judge

Cleayeland, of the Probate Count, was informed by Attorney Shipman, of Hart-itigation.

The Court ordered a hearing on the petition delayed until the 16th im ordered.

Forecast for the thirty-six hours ending at 8 P. M. Friday for New York City and vicinity: Partly gloudy and colder to-night; Fri day fair; brisk to high westerly that proper service may be had on parties interested.

Over Mulqueen.

1, Charlie Thompson (2 to 1) and the track was ruch better.

One mile.

"Circulation Books Open to All."

PRICE ONE CENT.

PRICE ONE CENT.

OUTSIDERS AGAIN

NEW YORK, THURSDAY, DECEMBER 10, 1903.

Detectives Employed by Garden Management to Probe Into Alleged Poisoning of Walthour, Munroe and Dorlan Claim Betting Men Are Behind Attempted Murders.

ARRESTS LIKELY TO FOLLOW INVESTIGATION BY DETECTIVES

Several Heavy Wagers Made This Afternoon -Munroe Rides Around Like Crazy Man -Toots Big Horn All the Time-Racers Still Way Behind the Record.

MADISON SQUARE GARDEN, Dec, 10 .- A ring of gamblers, it is claimed, are behind the attempts made to poison three riders in the sixday race, and the detectives engaged by the management to probe into the mystery announced late this afternoon that several arrests would prob- Duelist 3. ably be made before midnight.

The betting non the rac has been getting heavier and heavier each day as the race goes on. Several well known bookmakers are making alr.ost "open" book on the race and wagers between individuals are Behind all the betting is a lot of "wise money." It is the people who are laying this money that are under suspicion in connection with the poison mystery.

THREE RIDERS SAID "POISON."

Within a few hours of each other Dorlan, Walthour and Munroe all declared that attempts had been made to poison them.

With three men declaring absolutely that they had been poisoned, the nanagement was forced to believe that there was something in the story pesides the wanderings of diseased brains, and several detectives were sat for to probe into the matter.

Walthour and Monroe declare that poison was thrown on the sponges they use, while Dorlan claims that his food was drugged. NEW WORLD'S RECORD.

Willie Fenn, of Bristol, Conn., made a new world's record at the Garden this afternoon for a fifth of a mile, going the distance unpaced in 1-5 seconds.

Frank Kraemer made a sensational quarter-mile in 25 seconds, going round the track like a white streak.

BIG BETS ON THE RACE.

A pet was made in the Garden this afternoon that the winner of the six-day race would be Walthour. A. T. Schlessinger of Boston, and a member of a bicycle manufacturing firm, bet $1,000 to $3,500 with Sam Newhouse, of Baltimore, placing the money in the hands of the Garden eashier that Walthour would finish first.

Another bet was recorded at the same place by August Wenzel, of New York, and Arthur M. Dubois, of Allegheny City, Pa. Each man bet $600 and selected three men to run one, two, three. Wenzel's selection was Leander, Walthour and Breton. Dubois selected Jacobson, Breton and

MUNROE, RAVING CRAZY, KEEPS IN AWFUL RACE.

MADISON SQUARE GARDEN, Dec. 10 .- Benny Munroe, Bobby Walthour's partner in the fearful six-day grind has gone to pleces under the awful tor ture and is racing around the steep- Leander and Butler...... 1531 banked bowl raving crazy.

He threatend to drop out of the race to-day unless an automobile horn was Newkirk and Jacobson......... 1831 attached to his wheel, and his trainers J. Bedell and M. Bedell............ 1531 had to run across to a Fifth awenus Root and Dorlan..... store and get a tooter for him. The store and get a tooter for him. The Samson and Vanderstuyft...... 1529 first one was not large enough and they Gougoltz and Franz Krebs...... 1529 toots it repeatedly, to the distraction of the other riders.

Another evidence of the condition of is mind is that he continually yells vest and gray spotted gloves, quite the while making the circuit. If he con-tinues to get worse he may have to be Contenet, of the French team, came tinues to get worse he may have to be nme will be permitted in the race becomes unmanageable or un-

Munroe's head is all right, but he be-Meyes his skull is fractured. Doctors bottle he saw on the table and had it have been called to attend him. Bob Fitzsimmons was an early called the Garden, wearing a pearl velvet

FIVE O'CLOCK SCORE.

EIGHTY-NINTH HOUR.

Walthour and Munroe..... 153T Contenet and Breton..... Floyd Krebs and Peterson...... 1531 Bowler and Fisher...... 1521 Record for eighty-nine hours is 1721, made by Miller and Waller in 1899.

from the Garden in a strait- very near being sent to the Morgue to day. He had been relieved by his part ner and went to his sleeping quarters. It is his custom to drink a bottle o imported ale before going to sleep, and able to ride, or until the health authori-ties interfere. this trainers always have the bottle un-corked and ready for him when he leaves the track. Contenet grabbed the to his lips when a trainer rushed at him

(Continued on Twelfth Page.)

GET THE MONEY. MYNHEER AT

LATESCORES Takes Opening Event at New IN THE GREAT Orleans, with Mrs. Frank Foster, an 8-to-1 Chance, Run-CYCLERACE ning Into Second Money.

Scores of the leaders in the cycle race at Madison Square AND A HALF FURLONG DASH. Garden at 6 o'clock were as follows:

City Track-Heavy Betting Leander & Butler ... 1,539 9 Walthour & Munroe 1.539 9 J. Bedell & M. Bedell 1.539 9 lewkirk & Jacobson 1,539 9 Contenet & Breton. 1,539 9 Root & Dorlan 1,539 9 Bowler & Fisher 1,539 9 Keegan & Moran 1,539 8 Fl. Krebs & Peterson 1,539 9 Samson & V'derst't 1,538 8 Fr.Krebs & Gougoitz 1,536 1 Dove & Hedspeth... 1,524 9

The record for 90 hours is 1,750 miles and 1 lap, made by Miller and Waller in 1899

LATE RESULTS AT NEW ORLEANS.

Fifth Race-Birdwood 1, Badger 2, Free Admission 3. Sixth Race—Montebank 1, Wreath of Ivy 2, Ora McKinney 3

ADMIRAL GHERARDI HE SHOT BELLBOY DIES ON BIRTHDAY Dec. 10.—Another perfect racing day brought out a good crowd to the track. The weather turned considerably cooler

Famous Old-Sea Fighter Had Murray McGauley Fired Two Been Failing Rapidly for a Week and the End Was Not Unexpected.

STRATFORD, Conn., Dec. 10.-Kear-Admiral Bancroft Chererdi died at his residence here this afternoon. To-day was the Admiral's birthday. All the ne week when he began to fail rapidly. Rear-Admiral Gherardi retired from the navy on Nov. 11, 1894, after having continuously June 24, 1845, he entered the navy as 4-5 midshipman from the State of Massa-

Pacific Squadron until 1862, when he entered the Naval Academy and was graduated as a passed midshipman. In 1865 he became master and lieutenant. He was raised to the rank of lieutenant commander in 1862 and served for a year under Admiral Farragut. He was in the engagement with Fort Macon in that year and was complimented by his commander for his conduct under fire.

In 1863-4 he commanded successively In 1863-4 he commanded successively the gunboat Chicoma and the steamer Port Royal, of the West Gulf Blockad-

In the latter vessel he took part in the battle of Mobile Bay, and during the action, by orders of Capt. Thornton A. Jenkins, to whose vessel, the Richmond, the Port Royal was lashed, he cast off and drove away the Morgan, Gaines and Selma, rebel gunboats, and received personal compliments from the flag officer for his work. Later in the war he commanded the Pequot.

In 1886 he was made Commander and in 1874, as Captain, he commanded the European Squadron. He witnessed the bombardment of Alexandria and in 1884 he was promoted to be Rear-Admiral. Then, after two years as Commandant of the Bacoklyn Navy-Yard, he took command of the North Atlantic Squadron. He was in command in the time of the divil war in Hayti and did much to restore order there. He again became Commandant of the Brooklyn Navy-Yard in 1893, retiring a year later. he battle of Mobile Bay, and during at Monte Carlo. LONDON, Dec. 10.-A despatch to news agency from Monte Carlo announces the death there to-day of Baron Arthur de Rothschild.

BARON ROTHSCHILD DEAD. Member of Family of Bankers Die

ford, to-day that Mrs. Plant has de-clined to sign with the other heirs the petition to the Court that the late litenry Bradley Plant be declared to have been a resident of New York, in order to expedite the settlement of the $17,000,000 estate which long has been in litigation. Baron Arthur de Rothschild lived in Paris and at Cornay la Ville, Department of Seine et Olse, France. He was a member of the famous family of

SECRETARY HAY NO BETTER WEATHER FORECAST.

Bronchial Trouble Sticks to Him and He Is Very Hoarse. WASHINGTON. Dec. 10.—Secretary Hay's condition to-day is about the same as yesterday. He is suffering from a slight bronchial trouble, which makes him very hoarse, and it was by his doctor's advice and against his own deaires that he remained away from the State Department to-day.

Crased over the loss of her baby boy, who was burned to death a short time years old, attempted suicide by outling her throat with a rasor at her home,
No. WE Tonnelle avenue, Jersey City, this afternoon.

She was attended by Dr. Nevin, and removed to the City Hospital, where it is said she will die.

Bullets at William Morrissey in Lobby of the Martha Wash ington This Afternoon.

the Martha Washington, at No. 29 East Fwenty-ninth street, was with women this afternoon, Murray Mc-Cauley, an elevator boy, who had been pistol in his hand and fired two shots at William Morrissey, the captain of One of the bullets entered Morris June 24, 1845, he entered the navy as midshipman from the State of Massachusetts.

As literissey fell in a heap on the floor the women, a score of whom with the served on the Ohio and in the Pacific Squadron until 1852, when he enfollowed McCauley tried to make his escupe.

QUEEN'S BEDROOM ON FIRE. A Blaze in English Royal Palace

Causes Excitement.

LONDON, Dec. 10 .- A fre occurred to day in Queen Alexandra's bedroom at Sandringham. It broke out in the chimney flue, where a beam is supposed to have been smouldering for some days. Considerable damage was done before the fire was extinguished.

The outbreak caused much excitement at Sandringham, where the Queen and nected at all. I do not care to say any-

ANOTHER MERGER BRIEF IN. Northern Securities Contends that

It Broke No Law. WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.—A brief was filed in the Supreme Court of the United States to-day by John W. Griggs, counsel for the Northern Securities Com pany, in the proceeding of the United pany, in the proceeding of the United States against that company for violation of the Anti-Trust law.

He contends that the formation of the Securities Company and the purchase by it of the majority of the stock of the Northern Pacific and Great Northern were perfectly legal and natural acts, and he urges that the Securities Company has as much right to acquire the stock of the two roads as an individual would have.

GRIEF PROMPTS SUICIDE.

Crased over the loss of her baby boy

Frank Stone, a Youth Just Arrived from Chio, Was Trying to Escape Arrest for Attempt ing to Rob Bank.

WHEN CHASED HE DIVES INTO THE ICY RIVER.

s Making His Way Across When a Kind-Hearted Tug Man Drags Him Aboard, After Which Detective Gets Him.

After having attempted to rob the swimming through the jey waters to not a tugooat man thrown a lasso about his neck and hauled him in Stone, who is hardly more than a bo n appearance, arrived in Hoboken yes nediately set about for some scheme which he could get rich quickly. The say he hung about the streets of Ho ken all yesterday afternoon. Last nigh after Hermann Hosner, a saloonkeepe of No. 515 Madison street, Hoboken, ha closed his doors and retired Stone e robbed the cash drawer of all its con n the First National Bank for $15.

Stopped Payment of Check. Upon discovering that he had bee robbed Hosner to-day notified the bank o refuse to carn the check. The re-tered. He was perfectly cool and colested when he presented the check.

"Please cash this," he said: Cashier McKaig started from the dow and was making his way around to capture the lad when the latter sudlenly seized the wicket window and attempted to pull it apart and seize the eash that lay in large quantities on the counter. He was still puling at the him and attempted to hold him. With a himself loose from Makaig and bolted for the street. He Jumps Into the River.

A great crowd heard the cashler call ing "Stop thief!" and seeing Stone runfooted his pursuers and ran to the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western depot with He dashed through the depot, ran out to the end of the pier and dived into with a long, easy, over-hand stroke was making for the New York shore, the crowds in the depot watching him. but no one attempting to follow

The lumber barge Henry I. Smith, it Stone was in the stream, and seeing one of the crew made a lassoo of a rope and with great skill hurled it about the boy's neck. He was then hauled aboard the boat and taken to shore, where he was arrested by Detective-Sergt. Nel-

"Gave you a little bit of a run for your money, didn't 1?" said as he was led away to jail.

JUSTICE MAYER TO RESIGN.

He Confirms Report, but Says He Will Not Take Bruce's Place. The report that Julius Mayer, Justice of Special Sessions, would resign in few days was confirmed to-day. The Justice deried emphatically the story that he is to accept the Presidency of the Republican County Committee in place of Mr. Linn Bruce "The two matters should not be con thing at present about my future in politics," he said.

The news of Justice Mayer's intention to resign follows a private talk he had early in the week with Gov. Odell. It is understood that Mr. Mayer has already notified Mayor Low of his intention to resign and will make public a letter in day or two giving his reasons.

It was rumored about City Hall today that John C. Clarke, who was Mayor Low's campaign manager, would be appointed to succeed Justice Mayer.

NEW BISHOP OF COLUMBUS

ronaganda Names Rev. James J Hartley for Ohio Diocest. ROME, Dec. 10.—The meeting of the Congregation of the Propaganda, which was postponed from Monday to enable all the Cardinals in Rome to be present t the Advent sermon, was held to-day The Cardinals present were Vannutelli, Mathieu, Agliardi, Satolli, Pierotti, Martinelli, Steinhuber, Della Volpe, Segna and Gotti, the latter presiding. After considerable discussion over the candidates for the Bishopric of Colum candidates for the Bishoppic of Columbus, O., Cardinal Gotti summed up the situation and the Congregation decided to submit to the Pope for appointment as Bishop of Columbus, in succession to the Rev. Henry Moeller, recently appointed Coadjutor Archbishop of Cincinnati, the name of Rev. James J. Hartley, of Steubenville, O.

FOR KILLING BOY

Martin McGinn's Car Ran Over Seven-Year-Old John Dooley, Crushing Him to Death, and an Infuriated Crowd Which Watched the Tragedy Made Desperate Efforts to Lynch the Man at the Gip.

SQUAD OF POLICEMEN HAD WORK TO SAVE HIS LIFE.

Women Joined the Crowd Which Tried to Kill Him-He Is Rushed to Salety Into a House Near Scene of Killing at 8th Avenue and 133d Street Until Reserves Arrive.

Motorman Martin McGinn, of the Eighth avenue line, was beaten ticked and stoned, narrowly escaping with his life at the hade of amou of men and women who saw his car run over and crush to death sevenyear-old Johnny Dooley, of No. 300 West One Hundred and Thirty-third street, this afternoon within a few doors of his home

The boy was crossing Eighth avenue from the public school on One Hundred and Thirty-third street toward his home when McGinn's car ran him down, and did not stop until the boy's head had been crushed and his legs severed from his body. The street was filled with men and women at the time who witnessed he accident and who loudly denounced the motorman for his evident carelessness, as he apparently made no effort to stop his car.

DRAGGED HIM FROM CAR.

A dozen men jumped upon the motorman and dragged him from the plat form of the car to the street, where he was kicked and cuifed and clubbed until Policemen Beck and Hanlen, of the West One Hundred and Twentyfifth street station, fought their way through the crowd with their nightsticks and rescued him. The policeman rushed the motorman to a neighboring store and barricading the door, telephoned for the reserves and a

In the meantime motormen and conductors of other cars that came along endeavored to get the body of the boy from under the car.

GOT THE BODY OUT.

An ambulance arrived from the J. Hood Wright Hospital while they were still vainly working to lift the car. At last workmen on a neighbor ing building recured a quantity of shoring beams, which they placed under the car, and, aided by the weight of several score men, raised the trucks of the car and drz forti the mansled body of the child.

'n the mean time , half dozen policemen had been fighting of the crowd that was ciamoring for vengeance upon the motorman.

TOOK HIM TO POLICE STATION.

The reserves who arrived with a patrol wagon had all they coul- do to stave off the shouting men and women while they put the man, pais and trembling with fright, into the wagon and drove him to the police statica. It was fully a half hour after the accident when a wrecking wagon c the Metropolitan Street Rallway Company arrived.

STATEN ISLAND TRAIN JUMPS OFF THE TRACK

Seventy-five Passengers Thrown Into Panic and Jolted by the Cars Bumping Along Ties.

Staten Island Rapid Transit train wer to Tottenville and was within a few thrown into a panic this afternoon near yards of the Prince's Bay station w the Prince's Bay station on the Amboy Division of that road by the train number ing the track and bumping along the ties about one hundred feet before it was stopped.

As soon as the train jumped the tracthe engineer jammed down the brakes, but they falled to work and the passengers had a severe shaking up before the man Came.

Miss Theresa Farrell, of No. 313 East advertise in the right place. Fifty-third street, a pretty little woman, showed unusual determination and

About seventy-five passengers on a The train was bound from St. George the accident happened. The passengers were thrown from their seats and for while there was a panic. They were danger. The passengers were all taken charge of 50 cents each. A wrecking train was sent from St.

George and the train was soon put on the track and pushed to Tottenville.

fleetness of foot this afternoon in pur-suing a pickpocket for three blocks alone Lexington avenue, capturing him and holding him for the approach of a policeman.

Miss Farrell was crossing Lexington avenue at Fifty-third s reet. A tall young man snatched her purse from her hand and ran down the avenue, Miss Theresa Farrell Caught the Youth Who Grabbed Her Purse, and Held on Till Policeman Came.

her hand and ran down the avenue.

Miss Farrell did not hestate a moment. She ran after the thief. She caught him by the coat sleeve just as a policeman appeared on the avenue.

The man was held in $1.000 ball in the Yorkville Court. He described himself as James Smith, nineteen years old, of No. 173 Ludlow street.

To make business boom during the full season it is only necessary to Sunday World is the right pla